

Virginia's Popular Resorts Thronged With Pleasure Seekers

White Sulphur

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., August 8.—Every thing and everybody here is en fête. Once the center of the country's fashionable life, the Old White presents during these weeks a scene of animation reminiscent of its past glories. This week guests of the famous old-fashioned home-coming indeed, when the new-comers were received with open arms and little shouts of joy by old friends of past seasons. The days are literally congested with amusements; polo aquatic parties, bridge, to which devotees cling as tenaciously as did Horatio of old; tennis tournaments, elegant dinners, series of suppers, the horse show and the great hunt ball, all combine to make the season gay. One hears nothing but horse talk now, coaching parties are all the rage, and the Spring brake is painted a dashing red and drawn by four spanking bays.

One of the social features of the week was the gay coaching party given by Mrs. and Mrs. John Middleton of New York, who were driven to the Old Sweet Springs, and returned by the light of the moon. That most delightful of summer events, the Burt McIntosh, gave a charming talk here Monday evening, taking for his subject Secretary Taft's visit to the Orient. Mr. McIntosh will be pleasantly remembered by all who met him during his stay here.

Mrs. John D. Potts, of Richmond, gave a tennis tournament to the young people, which lasted several days, and was hotly contested. The prize was a silver cup, and was won by Mr. Cobb, of New York City.

Thursday morning Mrs. Louis W. Haskell, of New York, gave a large and brilliant bridge party for men and women in the drawing room, the guests of honor being Mrs. Langdon Cheves and Mrs. A. Thesmar. The decorations, tally cards, prizes and menu were lovely, and the affair a most enjoyable one. The game included twelve tables, and a dozen handsome prizes were awarded the highest scores.

Secretary and Mrs. Taft were here Friday and Saturday, and nothing was neglected to make their visit a regular ovation.

Heilant Horse Show Ball.
But the ball, the ball! On this memorable evening the ballroom suggested a great forest ablaze with light and color, and filled with music. Two life-size horses represented in the act of jumping hurdles, ornamented the musicians' stand, and these were ridden by gentlemen in hunting coats of pink. Those who took part in the grand march into the ballroom, and then marched the length of the long veranda. Among the number were the following: Mr. Taft and Mrs. Taft, Baron Ove Gude and Mrs. Gude, Mrs. R. C. Gude, Mr. and Mrs. Garlington, Hon. and Mrs. Joseph Gains, Dr. and Mrs. Chastard, General Garlington and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Simonds, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsborough, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Helm, Mr. and Mrs. Uylie, Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Branch, Dr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Semple, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Cheves, Dr. and Mrs. Street, Mesdames Kellogg, Browning, Reinhardt, Saunders, Christian, Seale, Worthington, Ogden, and Mrs. Rutherford, Enders, Hemly, Wortham, Hall, Johnston, Miss Elfr Branch, Miss Adlin McDowell, Forty couples, composed of beautiful belles and gallant cavaliers, were included in the march.

The cotillon was splendidly led by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Thayer, of Charleston, W. Va. Mr. Thayer carried the American flag, and Mrs. Thayer was the standard-bearer of the colors of the Confederacy. Many couples bearing the national and Confederate flags, were seen behind them, and the music chosen for the dance was the inspiring strains of "Dixie." All the figures introduced were suggestive of the horse show.

The Greenbrier Country Horse Show that concluded the week-end festivities attracted hundreds of inland lovers of the sport, with Bar Harbor and Newport Horse Shows yet to come.

Dr. and Mrs. Holt are regular visitors here from Surry. The doctor is one of the best known men in the State, and has a wide acquaintance. Dr. Holt is one of the most popular visitors here.

Mrs. Enders, of Richmond, Va., who arrived this week, is a handsome brunette—a widow, who was also a belle of the Springs. Her husband, for her is Mrs. Chas. Stokes, of Richmond, who is a blonde beauty, and who is accompanied by her pretty daughter, Miss Aline Stokes, who was one of the belles at the ball.

A lovely elderly woman who is receiving much attention is Mrs. Coleman Wortham, of Richmond, who is accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Wortham, of Richmond, an agreeable acquisition to the society of the Springs.

From Richmond comes Miss Page Royal, a glowing brunette beauty, who was present at the horse show and a belle at the ball.

A handsome matron from Richmond is Mrs. Walter Simmons. She has a graceful figure, and dresses exquisitely, with beautiful bright eyes. She has two sons, Walter and Reginald, and is favorites with all here.

Blue Ridge Springs

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, VA., August 8.—Richmond, Washington and New York, with Norfolk a close second, have been busiest this week in filling every "hook and cranny" made vacant by the transients, and old Blue Ridge Springs now holds a "one hand" and "four aces." The four "aces" are John Goode, of Bedford City and Washington, D. C., that well-known statesman and blue ideal, who has so ably and so nobly served his State and his country; Mr. G. Watson James, who "won his spurs" on the staff of the Richmond Dispatch; Dr. Jno. N. Upshur, that polished gentleman, who takes first rank among the M. D.'s of Richmond, and last but not least Mr. W. H. McAllister, of New York City, who has traveled extensively and is always an interesting talker. The "joker" is Col. A. W. Spaight, of Galveston, Texas, a gentleman and a scholar, who does honor to his State and whose reputation is well known. Most equals that of Col. Gordon McCabe, of Richmond, who is said to be the peer of Chaucer's Depey.

Mrs. W. L. Moody, Sr., of Galveston, Texas, is giving a series of eight-hand euchre parties to the young people here Tuesday evening, when the players were Mrs. Keim, of Richmond, Mrs. McAllister, of New York, Mrs. Clark, of Washington, Mrs. Addison, of Lynchburg, Mrs. Spruile, of New Orleans, and Mrs. Moody, Mrs. W. L. Moody, Jr., Mrs. Alice M. Moody, all of Galveston. Charming people, an interesting game and delicious refreshments combined to make it a most enjoyable evening. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. McAllister, and a beautiful Altamira salad bowl will adorn her pretty home.

Again on Thursday evening Mrs. Moody was the gracious hostess at another eight-handed game, which was as enjoyable as the first.

Wednesday morning Mrs. Philip F. Brown was again the courtly and smiling host for a ginger ale party on the lawn, where the guests assembled in their prettiest summer attire made a beautiful picture.

Friday evening the ballroom was the setting for one of the prettiest games of the season. At twelve a buffet supper was served, and at one the strains of "Home Sweet Home" brought the evening to a close. Among the beautiful dancers, dainty attractive Miss Mary Greenhard Johnston, of Richmond, was one who enjoyed a full share of attention. Mrs. Jno. C. Gude, of Richmond, was one of the chaperons, who looked unusually handsome.

Among the recent arrivals from Richmond are Mrs. G. C. Minor and Mrs. M. C. Minor, Katharine and Ophelia Minor, Mrs. J. B. Perry and her attractive daughters, Miss Perry and Miss F. L. Perry, and Mr. F. Sprigg Perry are recent arrivals from Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Gode and family, of Dallas, Texas, are delightful additions to the colony. Mr. Coke is an ex-Virginian, Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, Pres. Gen. U. D. C., returned during the week from Montague, Tenn., where she was called to preside over the "C. Day" of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas; Howard L. Hartscock, Petersburg, Va.; S. M. Reed, Hartford, C. C.; Mrs. Geo. Bain and daughter, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. G. G. Minor and family, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. William Moncreux and daughters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. E. Deigis and Mrs. C. G. Day, of the Woman's Congress, which is part of the annual Chataqua being held there during the months of July and August. This being the centennial year of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Daughters of the Confederacy made Mrs. Stone's life and character the central thought of the addresses given on their program.

Other arrivals include: W. L. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; E. A. Watson, Lynchburg, Va.; E. W. Potts, New York, Va.; R. L. Perun, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. B. Perry and family, Washington, D. C.; Mr. C. C. Coke and family, Dallas, Texas; John T. Bonner and family, Tyler, Texas